

DIVERSITY OFFERINGS

1.

Blacktivism in the Academy

A podcast by scholar-activists for scholar-activists

*Circle Up: Black Student-Athletes
Justice or Just Us?
Big Momma Knows. You Don't.
The Professionalism Trap*

This podcast encourages and facilitates learning, activism and anti-racist action. Listeners will learn from a variety of scholars and will enjoy a blend of informative and engaging episodes on a range of topics, some serious like colorism within Black communities, and some lighthearted like Black joy.

2.

Slave Pen to Spectator Sport: Remembering St. Louis' Buried Past

Explore the history of the slave trade in downtown St. Louis and efforts to both erase and remember this past in a riveting discussion that travels through time.

Thursday, 6-7:30 p.m., Sept. 23
Glen Carbon Centennial Library, Glen Carbon, Ill.

3.

Certification for Small and Diverse Business

Learn about government contracting and obtaining the necessary certifications for your small and/or diverse business. This two-part session will feature speakers who are experts in the field of government contracting and provide all the information you need to successfully navigate government regulations in the State of Illinois. Sponsored by the Illinois SBDC for the Metro East and Business Enterprise Program at SIUE.

Thursday, 10-11 a.m., Oct. 14
Online via Zoom

